MEET SHEENA SAYDAM

As the force behind Saydam Properties Group (SPG) of Keller Williams Capital Properties, Sheena Saydam is committed to providing the best service to her clients and giving back to the community she is a part of. Sheena is passionate about providing each and every client with service more extraordinary than they've received anywhere—across all service industries.

Her dedication is reflected in the three organizations SPG actively and financially supports.

Generosity: Global

Generosity: Global is a non-profit organization with a local and international mission. They are committed to using the power of generosity to positively impact people by providing access to clean drinking water to people in developing countries, and helping people in homeless communities become self-sufficient. In addition to significant financial contributions and volunteer efforts, SPG has been committed to the development of a "Generosity" shower truck for the homeless.

The Tree House

The Tree House CAC of Montgomery County Maryland is dedicated to reducing trauma and promoting healing for child victims of physical abuse, sexual abuse, and neglect. Through an innovative, collaborative process between the private and public sectors, key professionals come together on behalf of the best interests of victims. SPG shares in The Tree House's vision, offers significant financial support, and holds events regularly—such as bake sales, pajama drives, charity drives, and more—to support their needs.

Urban Ed

Headquartered in Washington, DC, Urban Ed's mission is to provide District of Columbia children, youth, and adults with technology-driven education, information, and skill development for sustained futures. SPG works closely with Urban Ed to support the board in their mission to help DC residents gain marketable workplace skills in the IT field and expose them to various levels of technology. Sheena served on the board for three years, including two years as Board Chair.
